300 sqm Exhibition Stand for the Spring Fair 2005

Oakfield Displays Ltd has secured a major contract for a 300sqm exhibition stand for the Spring Fair Exhibition in February 2005.

Based in Heanor with 15,000 sqft of manufacturing and storage space this new order is a welcome boost in the run up to the New Year. The stand which incorporates several high profile companies with the Group is for a major ceramics company.

Work has begun on the stand which is designed with different elements to encompass the style of each fashion company. The bespoke stand is in a prominent end aisle position and Oakfield will undertake the build, pull out and storage utilising their experienced team of full time staff.
