Oakfield appoint new Sales & Marketing Director

Oakfield Displays Ltd has appointed Jonathan Leese as their new Sales & Marketing Director.

Jonathan, comes from a construction and manufacturing background and is experienced in retail, healthcare, public house, education, hotel & leisure and commercial projects.

He has also worked as a marketing consultant assisting architects, designers, surveyors and manufacturers develop new business with new customers. He is particularly strong in relationship and key account management and his appointment should assist Oakfield with their Business Plan for further expansion in Exhibitions, Shopfitting and Bespoke joinery.

Managing Director, Phil Boyfield said " We are pleased to have Jonathan on board and I am confident that his experience of our target markets will prove decisive in taking our business forward."
